President Gassert called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM.

Ed Raisanen moved to accept the minutes of the October 4, 2018 meeting. Phil Lippo seconded the motion and it carried.

Carmen Rinta moved to accept the treasurers report with a balance of $33,098.92 which included the raffle fund with $1,499.95. Gary Allison seconded the motion and it carried.

Franklin Turnock reported Tony Kangas will grade the trail one more time before freezing up.

We received two thank you notes, one from ATVAM/White Pine ATV Club for Ride and Rally help and one from Carlton County Riders helping with the cost of food for the Ride and Rally.

Gary Allison moved to continue our insurance with NORLU with the cost this year at $683.00 plus $100.00 membership. Stephen Diehl seconded the motion and it carried.

The Automba toilet sign is still down.

The Brown Road will be looked at after freezing up.

Jim Gassert will check on the loggers' progress at the Soo Pits with clearing.

The Aitkin County Alliance will be meeting on November 20, 2018. Aitkin County ATV representative Chris Johnson will be meeting with the clubs on updating billing.

Franklin Turnock attended a meeting at Castaways in Malmo about the state funding for the Mille Lacs to Malmo trail of 1.8 million dollars. There is a $150,000.00 match for the project. Aitkin County Economic Development may have money to help. The second phase of the project would include extending it to Glen. The next meeting will be January 9, 2019.

Should we have a raffle next year and if so, what would you like to see as raffle items?
